

Neeta Kulkarni

Detail Introduction

Teaching since 1981. Papers taught and currently teaching are General Psychology , Social Psychology, Cognitive Psychology , Psychological Testing and Statistics, and Practical in cognitive processes and Testing.

Area of current interest are Positive Psychology, Sports Psychology, Psychometry, Life – skills .Presented papers at National and International Conferences on these topics.

Actively involved in College Administration over the years. Was Chairperson of Examination committee for four years. Worked in Steering Committee for 3rd cycle of NAAC.. Worked as a member of IQAC and in June 2015, appointed as Co-ordinator of IQAC for three years.

Working as convenor of Counselling Cell and coordinates the functioning of Counselling Cell along with the counsellor.

Actively involved and concerned with mental health issues related to students. Have organised different programmes like guest lectures, Film shows, short film festivals related to mental health issues.

Worked on syllabus revision committee at university level.

Appointed as Psychologist on Ethics Committee of International Institute of Sleep Sciences.

Have taken training programmes for Police on Motivation .Also have taken training programmes for Polytechnic teachers on Cognition, Problem- solving , in Mumbai, Aurangabad , Nagpur.