1. Student's internship program by Department of Sociology

No. Of Students who participated: 55

Collaborating organizations:

1. NGO - Masoom (9 students)
2. NGO - Responsible Netism (28 students)
3. NGO - Stree Mukti Sanghatana (18 students)

Brief Description:

Department of Sociology and Economics started the internship programme in August 2022. They tied up with three NGOs - Masoom provides educational facilities in the form of night schools, Responsible Netism promotes cyber-safety and Stree Mukti Sanghatana works towards empowerment of women.

Students were required to complete 30 hours of fieldwork with these NGOs. This practice was combined with the Continuous Internal Assessment of students. Nine students worked for Masoom for increasing enrolment in the night schools. Twenty-eight students worked for Stree Mukti Sanghatana for uplifting rag-picking women in Thane by providing them financial literacy, basic education and also by educating their children. Eighteen Students worked with Responsible Netism to provide information on cyber security and safe use of cyberspace to people. They were also a part of a survey-based research project undertaken by Responsible Netism and Mumbai police to study the reporting of online distress.

Project CYBER SAFE MUMBAI -
A joint venture of V.G Vaze College of Arts, Science and Commerce, the Mumbai Police initiated by Responsible Netism.

To whomsoever this may concern

Responsible Netism is a social purpose organization committed to the cause of women and child online safety and cyber wellness since 2012. Responsible Netism in association with Mumbai Police and the KET's V.G Vaze college of Arts, Science and Commerce (Autonomous), Mulund Mumbai is collectively working on project Cyber Safe Mumbai. This project aims at educating people across the city about online safety tips and protocols so as to minimize cyber-crimes and its impacts. This project is supported by the Mumbai Police

Under this project, students of the V.G Vaze college of Arts, Science and Commerce would visit households within residential complex and communities to sensitize people about online safety protocols and provide information about reporting online distress. This would aid in reducing the ratio of cyber-crimes and empower people with preventive safety mechanisms to build cyber resilience.

Please allow Mr/Ms _____ to visit your premise to share this valuable information with you. The data collected would be highly confidential and used only for research by the Mumbai Police.

We look forward to cooperation and support in making this initiative successful and collectively protecting people from cyber frauds.

Sub: Request Letter for student internship.

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing this letter to express our intent to associate with your organisation for a student internship programme.

We, at KET's V.G.Vaze College (Autonomous), aim at informing and empowering students by engaging them with socio-economic realities, so that they raise critical questions and thereby make consequential interventions. To achieve this goal, we have developed a network with a few NGO's across Mumbai and its satellite urban spaces.

Students are required to participate in various activities of these NGO's as an integral component of the learning process. To take this ahead we wish to have a collaboration with your esteemed organisation dedicated to the cause of सर्वोत्थान.

We request you to:

1. Engage our students in 30 hours of field activity beginning from 26th Aug 2022.
2. Conduct an induction/orientation session before the internship starts.
3. Develop a review criterion to assess them out of 10 marks.
4. Grade their performance.
5. Provide them a certificate of completion of the internship.

We hope you will accept our request for collaboration and allow our students to be a part of your NGO in the most functional way. We look forward to a long term and fruitful association with you. Attached with this letter is the list of interested students.

Thanking you,

Principal Yours Sincerely

5. Participation of Tribal children in Dimension and educational visit to Nehru Science center

Date: 20th December 2022

Brief Description:

Team Dimensions visited a tribal hamlet near Titwala and spent a day with around 50 tribal children. We played games and taught them many new things, they gave us a warm welcome & we made memories for a lifetime. Later, on the actual fest day, we arranged for them to visit the college and witness a college festival, something they might never get a chance to do. They went on the stage with their favourite TV Actress Abhidnya Bhave. We also arranged a educational visit to Nehru Science centre and around Mumbai for these kids. Under this CSR activity we were able to widen the perspective and give new dreams to the tribal kids. They absolutely loved it and expressed their emotions to the team when they visited the campus and had a great time.

Respected Sir/ Madam,

Subject: Permission to conduct a campaign on Anti-bullying at your school

The Department of Psychology of V.G. Vaze College of Arts, Science and Commerce requests to conduct an event in your school in the first week of February, 2023 for students of class IX. The event is a campaign on "Anti-bullying".

The aim of this campaign is to spread awareness and establish anti-bullying attitudes amongst students.

It will be an honour if you give us an opportunity to conduct the campaign at your school. Hoping for a positive reply from your end.

If you like our event, then it would be our pleasure to conduct this campaign with students of other classes in the future as well.

Thanks and regards,
Yours sincerely,

Feedback analysis:

Out of 37 responses, the majority were satisfied with the event with 18 rating it as 5. 13 found it relevant and helpful and gave the maximum rating. Following are some of the key takeaways of students from our campaign:

Students learned the effects of bullying on a victim and witness, how they should stop bullying if they see it happening and spread more awareness about anti-bullying. They also claimed that they will not bully others and will try to help students who are being bullied, as also include students who are left out. Some of them also commented on how our campaign is a nice initiative, for the early age children; followed by them saying that they will support the Anti-Bullying concept wholeheartedly. The overall feedback for the event was "good experience" "helpful" "nice". Thus, we can say the aim of this event to spread awareness and establish an anti-bullying attitude among children has been fulfilled.

Brief Description:

Objectives of Taxation Clinic:

1. To serve the society by providing consultation regarding tax without charging any fees.
2. To educate the general public regarding Taxation Rules & Regulations.
3. To help the common man for filing his Income Tax Return/GST Return on his own without the help of Professionals like CA & Tax Practitioners.
4. To give legal advice for reducing tax burden like suggesting tax-saving investments, tax deductions which are not known to common man, etc.
5. To spread knowledge about various provisions & regulations of Income Tax & GST.

The Taxation Clinic was operated in two stages:

1. When the Taxation Clinic was started it was in offline mode. All the visitors were given free consultation regarding taxation. But, physical presence of the visitor was required.
2. When the activities of Taxation Clinic were noticed by Maharashtra Times (a leading Marathi Newspaper) they made available their platform where the visitors physical presence was not required. The visitor has to scan a QR Code published in Maharashtra Times & then online appointment was fixed as per the convenience of visitor. One of the panelists used to address queries of the visitors.

Thus, visitors were not required to come to the college physically. They can sit at their home & obtain expert advice from the panelists. Thus, Taxation Clinic is one of its own kind which is unique & different from other advisory centers. Free consultation was given to all the visitors upto 31st July, 2023. Taxation clinic was formed for providing information and guidance for those needing advice & help. It's main objective is to provide information, advice and preliminary guidance to any person needing advice in Income Tax and GST. Free guidance was provided on a wide range of topics of Income Tax and GST. Kelkar College's Department of Accountancy, in collaboration with the Maharashtra Times Culture Club introduced to help public in general for Income Tax queries. Many people have several questions on issues of taxation. All members of Department of Accountancy volunteered to serve the general public in solving their problems of Taxation totally free of cost. Total 372 participants were given free consultation on Income Tax and GST. 25 Participants were advised online and remaining were given offline/personal advice.
