2. During the conduct of lectures, students should not loiter in and around the college premises.
3. The college does not enforce a dress code. However, all students are expected to observe decorum with regards to both clothing and behaviour.
4. While representing the college at any other place, the student's behaviour should not be detrimental to the image of the college.
5. In case of any problem, personal or academic, students should report to the Prof-in-charge of their respective classes, Junior College Supervisor or the Vice-Principals, who will help them solve their problems.
6. Students are directed not to bring any outsider to the college premises.
7. Students should not collect any fund from other students or from outsiders without the written permission of the Principal.
8. Students shall not organize on their own picnics, excursion, trips etc. without prior written permission of the Principal.
9. The powers relating to disciplinary action in the college will rest with the Principal and his decision in this respect shall be final. Any one who violates the code of conduct will be severely dealt with.
10. Students should not write on benches/walls and should help in maintaining the learning environment neat and clean.

11 . Use of mobile phones is prohibited in college premises. Any violation will be treated as Misconduct and the student will be fined Rs. 50/-.

General

- a) Students who request leave of absence from lectures/practical/tutorials for participating in sports, cultural or any other activities for and on behalf of the College/Activity group, should submit the application countersigned by the respective Prof-in-charge before the commencement of such leave, failing which they will be treated as defaulters.
- b) Parents of Junior College students are requested to kindly contact the class teachers, Prof-in-charge of Vice-Principal or the Principal, at least once in a term, to keep themselves abreast with their ward's attendance and progress.

Ragging Prohibited

Government of Maharashtra has notified Ragging as a cognizable offence. Any one reported to be involved in any form of ragging, will be severely dealt with. Therefore, students are required to refrain from indulging in any form of ragging.

Counselling Cell

All of us experience psychosocial issues in varying intensity some time or the other. At such times we experience that our problems do not allow us to move ahead in life or experience joy and happiness or actualize our potentialities. One cannot eliminate all the problems from one's life. However, if we work on our state of mind and elevate it high, we can fly over the mountains of difficulties in our life journey. That is what counselling cell wishes to help students achieve - empowered and elevated state of mind.

Flying Bird : Counselling Cell of Vaze College is established with the following specific

Objectives :

1. To offer counselling services to students facing day-to-day difficulties in studies and in their personal life.
2. To offer first aid to students facing major mental health issues and refer them to the counselling services outside the college.
3. To conduct seminars/workshops for students to develop positive attitude and life skills to meet life challenges.
4. To offer assistance to students with special needs

Students / Parents are requested to make use of this facility. Ms. Geeta Kale from Junior College is the counsellor working in the Counselling Cell. Students may approach the counsellor personally or take help of their teachers to get in touch with them. Student's sharing will be kept confidential.

CHAPTER IV – ACITIVITY GROUPS & SPECIAL CELL

College Societies are meant for promoting co-curricular activities and competencies. A Committee of Teachers, two of whom are its Joint convenors, and two students, one from Degree College and other from Junior College, manage each society. The teachers concerned nominate these students on the basis of merit. The Degree college student works as the Secretary while the Junior college student works as the Jt. Secretary. These activity groups help students in personality development.

The Principal is the Ex-officio President of all College Societies and his decisions shall be final and binding on all matters. No person shall be invited to address meetings in the college without the prior permission of the principal.
