5. TITLE OF THE WEBINAR: Efficiency and Wellness: Balancing the Equilibrium

DATE: 29th July 2021

NAME OF THE RESOURCE PERSON AND THEIR DESIGNATION: Dr. Tejaswi Kamble, an Occupational Therapist

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE WORKSHOP:

Over 44 participants attended the event, including Professors of Psychology Mrs. Reeta Kamble and Ms. Renuka Gune. The event began at 10 a.m and ran for one hour forty minutes, covering the various aspects of quality of life-specific adaptation for fall precautions. Different points were discussed in the event, beginning with the fact that physical exercise is for everyone, an explanation of the Wellness and Health Promotion Model, and the different walking variations program. The guest speaker talked about how physical fitness keeps one young, healthy and in good shape and how it is also known to reduce the risk of disease and help create a good sleep cycle. She advised beginners to start practicing physical fitness by finding what suits them best, and exercise is not only for the physical well-being of our body, but it also contributes towards our cognitive well-being. The audience was then allowed to ask their doubts and questions to the speaker. They used the opportunity to ask questions about how late adulthood people are supposed to stay connected with society, how to conquer certain psychological disorders, and how late adulthood people face during it. The event was concluded with a vote of thanks to the guest speaker for her time and the audience for their patience. Finally, the audience was asked to fill out a feedback form, after which their e-certificates of participation were promptly mailed to them.

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS:

For the feedback form, we received over 25 responses from the audience. Almost all of the respondents found the webinar to be helpful and informative. In addition, the resource person, Dr. Tejaswi Prakash, was praised by most of the respondents for providing an informative session. The clustered column chart below summarizes how satisfied the attendees were with our event:

Please rate your satisfaction with the content of the session by indicating your level of agreement or disagreement with each of the following statement.

6. TITLE OF THE GUEST LECTURE: “Urban disaster and Social Justice: A Case study of Mumbai floods”

DATE:30th July 2021

NAME OF THE RESOURCE PERSON AND THEIR DESIGNATION:Prof. D. Parthasarathy, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT Bombay

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE WORKSHOP:

On 30th July 2021, a very informative guest lecture on “Urban disaster and Social Justice: A Case study of Mumbai floods” had been jointly organized in V.G. Vaze College by The Department of Sociology and Department of History. The resource person for this lecture was a well informed person, Prof. D. Parthasarathy from Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT Bombay. The lecture was conducted on Microsoft Teams, an online platform. Respected Principal of Vaze College Dr. B.B. Sharma, Vice Principal Dean of Arts and Head Department of History Prof. Dr. Preeta Nilesh, Head Department of Sociology Ms. Deepa Shirsat, teachers and students were a part of this guest lecture.

The lecture began at 11 am on Microsoft Teams with a warm welcome of Prof. D. Parthasarathy delivered by our respected Principal, Vice Principal and Head Dept of Sociology. The reason for occurrence of floods in urban areas, the techniques of rescuing people from floods, the precautions taken by the government and people before floods was well explained by Parthasarathy sir. He also shed light on the practices of social injustice such as inequality, malpractices with women, discrimination based on caste, class and religion conducted by the departments responsible for creating peace, harmony and Social Justice in the society. How the topography is related to the occurrence of floods was well elaborated by sir. Also deforestation affects the environment negatively resulting in floods was well explained by sir.

Followed by such an informative lecture, all the participants were allowed to freely share their opinions and ask any questions related to the issue. At the end of the lecture question and answer platform was set up by the team where the participants could either raise their hands and ask the question or could type it in the chatbox. After the question and answer session a small vote of thanks to Prof. D. Parthasarathy was delivered by a representative student, Head dept of Sociology and Vice Principal. A feedback form was filled by the participants sharing their experience of this lecture.

Date of the event: 26th August, 2021

Platform: Google Meet

Guest Speaker: Ms. Alisha Lalljee

Number of Attendees: 84

The Department of Psychology conducted a webinar on the topic of Left-Handedness on the occasion of International Lefthanders’ Day. The webinar took place on 26th August 2021 at 2:00pm and ran for a duration of one hour. A highly qualified guest speaker Ms. Alisha Lalljee (Counselling Psychologist, Psychotherapist, and Special and Remedial Educator) was invited to help the audience understand the uniqueness and psychology of people who are left-handed. Pre-event preparations included the designing of posters and promotions via whatsapp forwards. The event began with an address from our college's Head of Department of Psychology Dr. Neeta Mehta followed by a concept note given by Assistant Professor of Psychology Ms. Reeta Kamble. The student anchors then proceeded to introduce and welcome our guest speaker. Ms. Lalljee covered a wide range of topics— beginning from the explanation of the brain’s role in handedness, the difficulties faced by left-handed people (difficulties writing, using spiral bind-books, writing on the chalkboard, playing instruments and so on) and moved on to exploring concepts that were new to the audience such as handedness in animals (for example, 40% of cats are left-pawed) and the debate on how left-handed people are better in some professions (about 40% of tennis players and 20% of NASA astronauts are left-handed). Further topics she covered included the hereditary nature of handedness, mental health of a left-handed person, its impact on sports, physical health, birth, sleep, driving, learning a language and, delved into the topic of learning disabilities being associated with left-handedness, psychological testing and the gradual building of frustration, anger and low moods. An interactive question and answer session followed after the session officially ended and the audience actively participated and sent in their questions, to which Ms. Laljee provided satisfactory answers. By the end of this session, the speaker also demonstrated how they teach colouring and writing to left-handed people, generally in the case of toddlers. The webinar ended with a vote of thanks by the student volunteers and a few words by Reeta ma'am. All the members of the audience were sent feedback forms and their respective certificates of participation were mailed to them.

11. TITLE OF THE WEBINAR: Mental Health Campaign

DATE: 5th October 2021

NAME OF THE RESOURCE PERSON AND THEIR DESIGNATION: Students of TYBA Psychology

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE WORKSHOP:

The department of Psychology of KET'S V. G. Vaze College (Autonomous) celebrated the month of Mental Health Awareness i.e., October with a campaign on Mental Health Issues and the nurturant on 5th October, at 2 pm on the online platform of Microsoft Teams. This event was conducted by the third-year students of Psychology under the guidance of the professors of the Psychology department. The event was an informational event where the students took turns in speaking about Mental health issues faced by different groups of people in society. The mental health issues faced by women, children, men, elderly were addressed at the start of the campaign. Then a really good presentation of how these issues are stigmatized in society was done with the help of videos and examples from the entertainment industry. After that, an interactive "Myth or Fact" session was conducted by two students where different situations were presented to the audience and they were asked to adjudge those as a myth or a fact. After each situation why they were, what they were was explained which made it quite a practical exposition. After that a really great segment bringing pop cultural references to the acceptance of mental health issues was made by showing various famous movies and celebrities that express a positive attitude towards mental health issues and respect the agenda. Lastly, various ways and steps that could be taken to maintain one's mental health and ways to get better were shown. This included showing information about various organizations like Manav Foundation and Samaritans Program and various ways for effective communication.

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS: A total of 208 responses were received for the feedback form. As seen in the chart below, almost all of the participants found the event interesting.

Did you find the event interesting?

When asked about which part they liked the most, majority of the audience talked about the use of videos, the myth vs fact quiz, and how informative the campaign was. For general feedback and suggestions, the audience said that the event was very informative and had been well-executed and organized.

16. Title: DIMENSIONS SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (DSR) under ISR.

Date: 18th December, 2021.

Brief Description of the Activity:

We organized our very own DSR event i.e., Dimension's Social Responsibility under ISR, "Santa Cause" tried to reach out and help the villagers of Yeoor who are socially isolated. The one lesson that we have learnt is that, in times of need we have to stand for one another and therefore, we have organised a donation drive in the college and collected winter clothes, toys, packaged food items, footwear, books, stationery & so on. And in the month of December, the team dimensions visited Yeoor Village and spread happiness. And that was December to Remember! Furthermore, awareness drive namely Suraksha: Prevention from Infection, was also conducted on menstrual hygiene and its importance to the villagers.

List of donated items:

- Clothes – 100 Units
- Story Books – 25 Units

- Writing Books – 30 Units
- Pencils/Pens – 40 Units
- Rice – 10 Kg.
- Wheat – 8 Kg.
- Pulses – 8 Kg.
- Chocolates for kids
- Sanitary Napkins – 70 Approx.

18. ONLINE SURVEY CONDUCTED BY THE DEPARTMENT held on 01/1/2022

Online survey on Effective methods of Waste Management -

Link for the Google form used for the survey-

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScjZA3nqjAEO2TRlk1YeoH4LPerJx21imo-iTGxBfdPh9ff8A/viewform?usp=sf\_link

Objective of the survey- Awareness amongst the students about the gravity of the issue of waste disposal. Since the topic on Waste management and citizen's participation in the same is taught to the students under the autonomous syllabus of Environmental Studies, it was an exercise to check the effectiveness of the syllabus and teaching methodology used for the same as well.

Number of participants - In this on-line survey total of 374 students of different divisions of FYBCOM had participated

Links for the Google spreadsheet for responses -

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1RM2vIkmmjVAI56XiYJMBjq-zsk8iIzpzPWCwMXhcnxM/edit?usp=sharing>

Nature of questions-

1. The questions asked in this survey were simple, yet had a practical approach towards waste management practiced by students.
2. They were asked to consult with their parents/family members to get exact idea of the amount and composition of the domestic waste created at their residence.
3. Questions included approximate weight of their daily domestic waste, composition of the waste in to Biodegradable and non-biodegradable elements, and a general method practiced by them to dispose off these wastes.

The survey shows that the young students have grasped very effectively core of the issues connected with waste management , and also are willing to go with healthy practices of WM, to reduce burden on the civil authorities.

If provided proper training, most of the students and their families will go for not only waste segregation, but also waste management for further recycling of resources.

The students who participated in this survey were also given benefit of Internal evaluation marks of Class participation.

Description: We are in the 21st century now and still, many crimes are happening against women such as rape, kidnapping, molestation, domestic violence, ragging, etc. The Police Officers and the Government are trying hard to stop such cases and make India a crime-free nation, but it is not possible without public coordination cooperation.

The event was organised by the NSS DEGREE UNIT in association with the Crime Branch of Mumbai- from 4:00 to 5:00 pm IST on 9th February 2022.

The resource persons of the webinar were 'Mr Pravin Gajarma and Ms Gauri Vichare'. The webinar covered topics ranging from Cyberbullying, Raging, Cyber-Crimes against Women and Women's safety. The speakers talked about the importance of speaking up and filing an F.I.R. The speaker also delivered several ways by which individuals, especially women, can take preventive measures to avoid unforeseen consequences and spread awareness in the masses.

The webinar was inaugurated with a concept note by the Program Officer of the NSS degree unit, Mr Prasannajeet Bhave. Ms Swapna Jagtap, the NSS teacher coordinator, provided guidance and support to the students in organising the webinar. The webinar was hosted by our student volunteer Akshaya Raju. The program ended with a vote of thanks by our student volunteer Vidhi Rathod. The organising team included Aasawari Pol, Vidhi Rathod, Jyoti Masuda, Mrunal Suware, Anish Dixit and Mrunmayee Shinde who worked hard behind the scene to make this event a great success.

23. TITLE OF THE WEBINAR: Understanding the challenges of Learning Disabilities

DATE: 12th February 2022

NAME OF THE RESOURCE PERSON AND THEIR DESIGNATION: Ms. Shubhangi Khamkar, a special educator

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE WORKSHOP:

This event was organized by the students of TYBA Psychology under the Department of Psychology. The main objective of this event was to make the audience aware of the challenges faced by the students with learning disabilities and how these are corrected or certain techniques that help reduce the difficulty and help them ease their learning process .

The host started with a description of how a picture looks like to Ishaan in the film ‘Taare Zameen Par’. After greeting the audience members and a concept note by the HOD of Psychology department, the speaker was introduced and the event began.

The guest speaker started with understanding what the audience knows about learning disability and further continued with a short and crisp definition of learning disability. The speaker covered each learning disability in a very detailed manner and also pointed out the main challenge in each disability, how can the institution help the child ease from the issue faced, what can be taught more precisely and deeply to the children to help understand and learn better and lastly, how certain exercises and brain activities can help the children with better concentration.

A Q&A session was carried out where the audience asked their queries to the speaker in person. We also had a student, with a learning disability, sharing his experiences and journey until then. The event ended on a vote of thanks.

ATTENDANCE: 71 Members

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS:

When asked whether the audience finds the event interesting, all of them answered yes. When asked which part was liked the most by them, some answered that it was a very different topic and so the whole event was very interesting. While many also mentioned that explanation was very good, some said that the references to movies and the activities helped them understand the concept much better and brought a practical touch to the event.

A general feedback was that the speaker was well versed with the topic, each learning disability was covered very well. The session was very informative, interactive, insightful and also with a practical application motive. The event was well organized and well planned.

27. TITLE OF THE WEBINAR: Improving Quality of Life in Late Adulthood

DATE: 14th March 2022

NAME OF THE RESOURCE PERSON AND THEIR DESIGNATION: Dr. Tejswi Prakash Kamble

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE WORKSHOP:

Over 44 participants attended the event, including Professors of Psychology Mrs. Reeta Kamble and Ms. Renuka Gune. The event began at 10 a.m and ran for one hour forty minutes, covering the various aspects of quality of life-specific adaptation for fall precautions. Different points were discussed in the event, beginning with the fact that physical exercise is for everyone, an explanation of the Wellness and Health Promotion Model, and the different walking variations program. The guest speaker talked about how physical fitness keeps one young, healthy and in good shape and how it is also known to reduce the risk of disease and help create a good sleep cycle. She advised beginners to start practicing physical fitness by finding what suits them best, and exercise is not only for the physical well-being of our body, but it also contributes towards our cognitive well-being. The audience was then allowed to ask their doubts and questions to the speaker. They used the opportunity to ask questions about how late adulthood people are supposed to stay connected with society, how to conquer certain psychological disorders, and how late adulthood people face during it. The event was concluded with a vote of thanks to the guest speaker for her time and the audience for their patience. Finally, the audience was asked to fill out a feedback form, after which their e-certificates of participation were promptly mailed to them.

ATTENDANCE: 44 Members

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS:

For the feedback form, we received over 25 responses from the audience. Almost all of the respondents found the webinar to be helpful and informative. In addition, the resource person, Dr. Tejswi Prakash, was praised by most of the respondents for providing an informative session. The clustered column chart below summarizes how satisfied the attendees were with our event

Please rate your satisfaction with the content of the session by indicating your level of agreement or disagreement with each of the following statement.

Any suggestion/feedback you would like to give us?

Lovely event. Well be organized and a great guest.

Very informative

The session was very informative.

It was nice

If the session had more interactive factors like polls or something, it would have been more interesting. Also the PPT could have been more attractive. But the session as a whole was just awesome!!! Thank you for such a great experience!!!

It was a good session.

Would like to attend more such programmes

Wonderfully Enlightening Session!!

The session was insightful and of great importance to me.

No, it was great.

The Webinar was very well informative and engaging. I hope to attend more such webinars in future. :)

The session held was really good...the topic was different,as it is something we rarely talk about....got to how much important it is to preserve quality of health of older adults

Well explained session

None, well coordinated webinar. Would love to attend more such webinars

28. Title: Sports equipment Donation

Date: 20/04/2022

Brief Description of the Activity

Institutional social responsibility (ISR) committee members visited Shivbhakt tribal residential school at Lavhali, Taluka Ambarnath near Badlapur.

On behalf of V G Vaze college we have donated items like badminton and ball badminton rackets, cricket balls, volleyball, football basketballs, handballs, nets etc etc. Principal and other staff welcomed us and appreciated our gesture. 400+ tribal students will benefit from our small donation. Management of the school accepts donations only in the form of materials or items and NOT in cash.

The school does not have a gymkhana or any sort of sports facilities or items though they have a huge open ground. We hope with these sports items Adivasi students will be able to enjoy sports / PT periods. Special thanks to B.K. Giri gymkhana incharge for his valuable contribution

We also express our sincere thanks to our principal Prof. (Dr) Preeta Nilesh for motivating us to undertake such an initiative.
