

DISCLAIMER

It has been observed that some miscreants are using means to extort money from unsuspecting applicants/students in the name of helping them to seek admission in the College and for trainings and future employment.

The College does not ask for any fees in addition to the statutory fees as stated in the prospectus. Prospective students who wish to apply for programs are advised to visit the College Website <http://vazecollege.net>

In case you encounter such scamsters you are immediately required to report to the College authorities.

The College encourages everyone to be vigilant and stay safe.
