- 2] Mr. Aditya A Variath (Assistant Professor MNLU Mumbai)
- 3] Ms. Mahvish Kazmi (Research Assistant MNLU Mumbai)

Brief Description of the Guest Lecture:

The Guest Lecture was held to make students aware of the different career options in Law and to explain how one can start a career in law after 12th.

Objectives of the Guest Lecture:

To create awareness among students regarding the career options available in the field of law and explain to them the procedure of admission to a National Law University. To guide students regarding the various entrance exams of each university and also make them aware about Maharashtra National Law University which is in Mumbai so that students won't have to leave their hometown to study at far off places.

Outcomes of the Guest Lecture:

There was good participation from students and faculty members alike. There were questions asked to participants regarding their knowledge about the topic. The participants asked a few questions related to the theme to the resource persons and those questions were answered to their satisfaction. The seminar ended with a vote of thanks, also the students were asked to scan the QR Code displayed on the screen which redirects them to the Feedback form.

Feedback Analysis: Feedback from all the participants was very encouraging. 39 participants gave their feedback and more than 61.5% were very satisfied with the overall event. 71.8% of participants expressed that the speaker's knowledge about the subject was very good. The participants agreed that more such programmes should be arranged in the future. The Feedback reflected that the outcome of the programme was well appreciated by the participants.

8: IPR With Special Reference to Trade Marks

Date: 03/01/2023

Name of the Resource Person: Advocate Himali Patil

Venue: Mini Auditorium

Number of attendees: 45

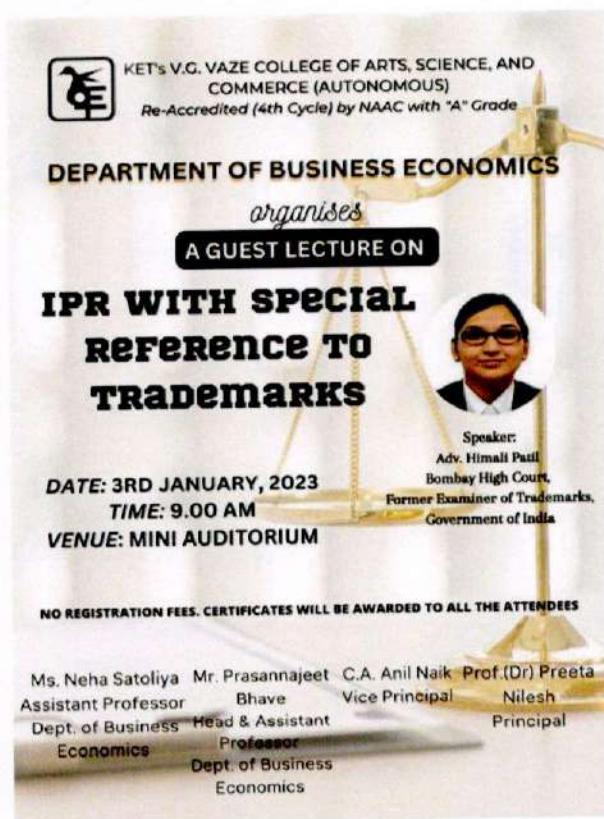

Brief Description of the Workshop:

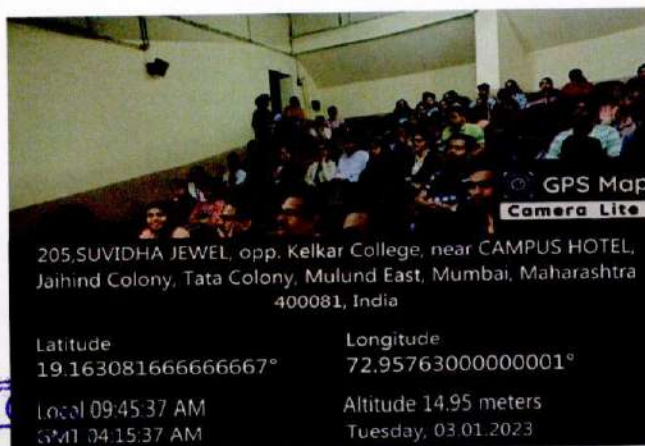

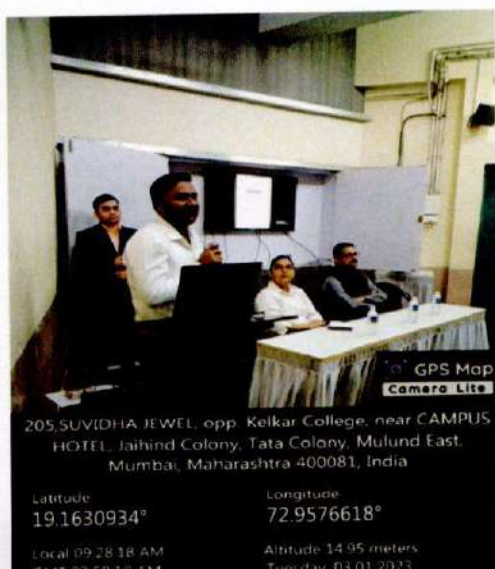

Knowledge about Intellectual Property Rights had been Extreme significance in the today's competitive era. Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) are legal rights that protect creations and/or inventions resulting from intellectual activity in the industrial, scientific, literary or artistic fields. The most common IPRs include patents, copyrights, marks and trade secrets. A lack of knowledge about IPR can lend a person serious trouble. It is also the part of the syllabus of TYBCOM. In order to create knowledge as well as career opportunities in future a session on "IPR With Special Reference to Trade Marks" was conducted. B.Com. students attended the session and benefitted from the same.

Team of student volunteers: Mr. Shardul Ahire, Aastha, Chinmay Patil, Jahanvi Rane, Chinmay Patil, Soham Rajput played a very vital role in organising the event and conduct the programme smoothly & successfully.
