5 "Know More Know Queer" – An Exhibition

Organizing Body: Women's Development Cell and Vaze Queer Collective

Date: 5th March, 2023

Number of Attendees: 140 (132 Students, 8 Teachers)

Brief Description:

'Know More, Know Queer'- the Exhibition was organised by Vaze Queer Collective in collaboration with the Women Development Cell on Day-2 of International Women's Week Celebration. This exhibition took place in the Commerce Lab (Room no. 04) from 9am onwards. It was inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Preeta Nilesh, Principal, Ms. Reena Pillai, Convenor, WDC, Ms. Harshana Nikam, Convenor, VQC and Ms. Shruti Shahu, Co-founder, VQC.

This exhibition sought to inform people about the various aspects of queerness such as sexual orientation, gender identities that exist beyond the binary of 'man' and 'woman', and other aspects of queerness. 12 members of the committee were present, well-equipped with knowledge about identities like 'Non-Binary', 'Transgender', 'Queer', 'The Genderbread person', 'Asexuality', 'Bisexuality', 'Polyamory', and more.

The visitors found the exhibition extremely informative and used it as a safe space to ask various questions regarding the same. Highly illuminating discussions took place during the exhibition with the students and faculty alike. In addition, the principal requested that we give the Library Committee a list of Queer books to be included in the college Library to make it an inclusive space of information. This Exhibition was indeed an exciting and notable step towards inclusion and sensitization in the College premises.
