Introduction:

The Department of Accounts at KET's V.G.Vaze College successfully organized an event on "Banking & Cyber Crime (Prevention & Detection)" on 5th December 2023. The event aimed to enlighten the audience about the challenges posed by cybercrime in the banking sector and strategies for prevention and detection. The event took place in the Mini Auditorium, with CA Yogesh Sant addressing the gathering and introducing the guest speaker, Mr. Gyan Barah.

Guest Speaker's Introduction: The Anchor provided a brief but insightful introduction to the distinguished guest speaker, Mr. Gyan Barah. Known for his expertise in the field, Mr. Barah has an extensive background in banking and cybersecurity.

CA Yogesh Sant's Address: CA Yogesh Sant took the stage and shared his experiences related to banking fraud and cybercrime. He highlighted the importance of being vigilant and cautious in the digital age. As a token of appreciation, CA Yogesh Sant presented Mr. Gyan Barah with a token of acknowledgment, recognizing his contributions to the field.

Mr. Gyan Barah's Session: Mr. Gyan Barah then took charge of the event, sharing valuable insights into Banking and Cyber Crimes. He emphasized the importance of safeguarding personal information, especially not sharing OTPs with anyone. Mr. Barah discussed the concept of cheating, detailing how fraudsters obtain information and attempt to siphon funds from both banks and customers.

Key Points Shared by Mr. Gyan Barah:

1. Introduction to Financial & Cyber Crime: Mr. Barah shed light on the subject of financial and cybercrime, providing a comprehensive overview.
2. Building Awareness Around Cyber Crime: He emphasized the need for awareness regarding the evolving landscape of cyber threats.
3. Career Opportunities in Operational & Fraud Risk: Mr. Barah discussed career prospects in the field of operational and fraud risk management, encouraging students to explore these avenues.
4. Understanding Fraud: He defined fraud, explained its methodologies, and explored why fraudsters engage in such activities—pressure, capability, and opportunity.
5. Types of Fraud: Mr. Barah covered various types of fraud, including cheque fraud, KYC fraud, retail asset loan fraud, and cyber fraud methods like phishing and skimming.
6. Helpline Information: He shared the "1930" helpline number for reporting cybercrime incidents, promoting a proactive approach to handling such situations.

Conclusion and Safety Measures: Mr. Barah concluded by advising attendees to be cautious with personal information, secure their PINs, avoid sharing OTPs, regularly monitor bank accounts, and report any fraud to the "1930" helpline.

Vote of Thanks and Conclusion:

The anchor expressed gratitude to all attendees, CA Anil Naik, Prof.(Dr.) Preeta Nilesh, CA Yogesh Sant, and especially Mr. Gyan Barah for their valuable contributions. The event concluded with a heightened awareness of the challenges posed by cybercrime and a renewed commitment to prevention and detection.

8 Guest lecture - "Dare to Share": Where, When, How and Why to invest in Stocks
Date: 3rd February, 2024

Name of the Speaker : CA Nikhilesh Soman

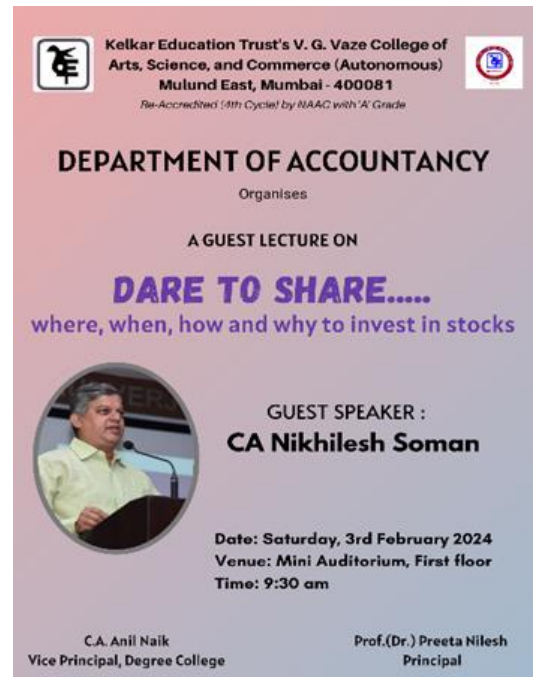

Venue: Mini Auditorium, KET's V.G. Vaze College of Arts, Science & Commerce (Autonomous)

Time: 9:30 AM

Resource person: CA Nikhilesh Soman

No. Of Students Attended : 97

The "Dare to Share" event, organised by the Department of Accounts at KET's V.G. Vaze College, unfolded on the 3rd of February 2024 in the Mini Auditorium. The featured guest speaker for the day was the renowned CA Nikhilesh Soman, a distinguished figure in the financial sector.

The event commenced with an engaging introduction by the anchor, shedding light on CA Nikhilesh Soman's impressive achievements and educational background. The audience was captivated, eager to glean insights from a seasoned professional in the field.

CA Nikhilesh Soman delved into the core theme of the event by sharing his personal journey and experiences in the stock market. He navigated through the intricacies of investments, focusing on stocks and bonds. He emphasized the volatile nature of stocks with potentially high returns and the stable returns offered by bonds. He elucidated on the suitability of each investment type based on risk tolerance and financial goals.

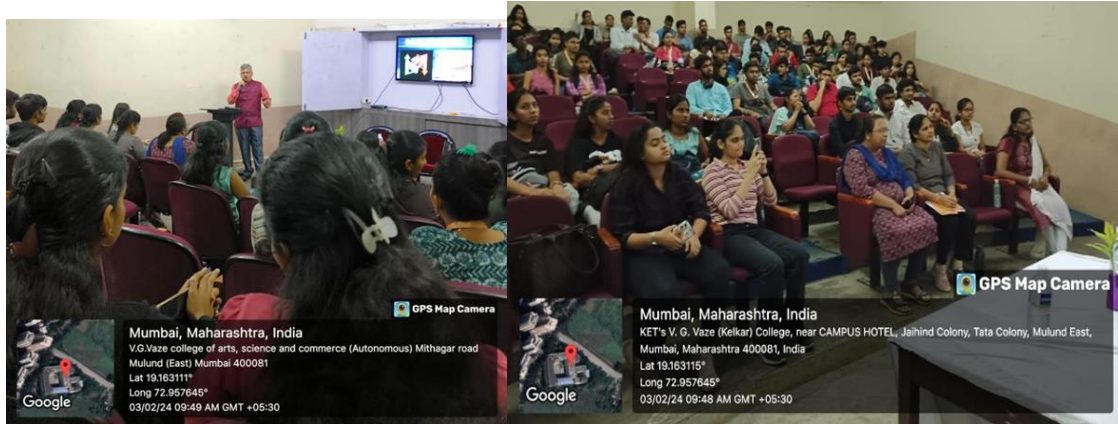

Expanding the horizon of investment, CA Nikhilesh Soman discussed various asset classes. Gold and silver (Investment Options: ETFs, Physical Gold), Real estate (Narrated the bull run from 1995-2014 and Downfall From 2014-2022), fixed-rate investments like bank FDs, and the stock market were explored in detail. He emphasized the risks and rewards associated with each, providing valuable insights to the attentive audience.

The presentation further delved into mutual funds, highlighting their advantages over traditional bank FDs. CA Nikhilesh Soman encouraged a long-term view for mutual fund investments, cautioning against expecting overly high gains.

As the session concluded, CA Nikhilesh Soman received heartfelt appreciation from the host, expressing gratitude to CA Anil Naik, Dr. Preeta Nilesh, and the Department of Accountancy for organizing such an informative event. The students were thanked for their active participation, concluding the event on a positive note.

In summary, "Dare to Share" proved to be an enlightening and empowering event, equipping students with valuable knowledge about the intricacies of investments and financial planning. The collaborative efforts of the organizers and the insightful presentation by CA Nikhilesh Soman made the event a resounding success.
