D. Curricular Aspects of Gender Equality

Gender Related Cross Cutting Issues in Course Curriculum

Sr. No.	Stream	Department	Curricular Aspects of Gender Equality
1.	Arts	History	The Department offers many courses which cover cross cutting issues such as Gender, Human Rights, Sustainability, etc. All courses have modules which explain the condition of women in different eras in history. History of the Contemporary World (1945 CE – 2000 CE) with Course Code AHST505, has a module on LGBTQIA history which provides necessary information and environment for gender sensitisation. Research Methodology: Trends & Approaches in Writing History (Course Code: AHST606) examines different approaches to history, including Subaltern and Feminist Approaches, which deal with the history of the marginalized sections of the society. Various trends in feminist historiography, issues pertinent to gender including laws and legislations over the years, portrayal of women in advertisements and cinema, beauty pageants, constitutional provisions for women are also discussed.
2.		Sociology	Sociology of Gender: This paper discusses Feminist perspectives, women’s movements in India, marginalised genders, their rights etc. It also addresses intersectionality.
3.		Political Science	Indian Political System: Semester 4 : Develop theoretical attention for conceptual understanding of Caste, Religion and Gender in Indian political context. Recognise the social and political dynamics in India with reference to Caste, Religion and Gender

4.		Economics	Socio-economic implications of poverty and economic inequality, gender-based discrimination with respect to allocation of resources and availability of opportunities, environmental concerns, and agrarian crisis are discussed in the course of Economics of Development (Sem V, Paper V), and Development Theory and Experience (Sem VI, Paper VIII).
5.		Marathi Literature	Marathi Department curriculum effectively integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to gender, environment and sustainability, human values and professional ethics and leads to a strong value-based holistic development of students. Gender related courses are an integral component of various programmes. Students are sensitized and encouraged to work towards gender equity from a cross-cultural perspective. By introducing the feminist, Dalit, rural and metropolitan literary trends in Marathi literature, the students realize the relationship between literature and society. It can help students to develop social sensitivity.
6.	Commerce	Commerce	The Department of Commerce places great importance on addressing cross-cutting issues in its curricula to ensure students know important topics including gender sensitivity, environmental risks, and corporate social responsibility (CSR). The department strives to offer a thorough education that goes beyond conventional business studies by including themes like women in entrepreneurship and leadership, sexual harassment in the workplace, green marketing, and CSR initiatives. One of the focal points of the curriculum is gender sensitivity. The department strives to promote equitable opportunities for women in business by placing a focus on issues like women in leadership and entrepreneurship. The curriculum also covers the subject of sexual harassment at work. Students are educated about the different types of harassment, their legal repercussions, and the significance of fostering a courteous and safe working environment. By integrating these topics into the curriculum, the Department of Commerce aims to develop graduates who are not only knowledgeable about business concepts but also conscious of their obligations to promote gender equality, environmental sustainability, and social welfare.

7.		Foundation Course	In the subject Foundation Course, we discuss topics related to gender inequality and violence against women. Also we teach them remedies to overcome them.

Best Practices About Gender Sensitivity

Best Practice 1

ONE WEEK CELEBRATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

The college WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CELL has been organizing insightful programs on Women specific issues like health, safety and legal rights in the form of interviews , workshops seminars and skits for One Week as a part of the celebrations of the International Women's Day program since AY 21-22, 22-23.

This comprehensive practice has ensured a meaningful and impactful effect of empowering the staff and students of the college. It has aided in promoting gender sensitivity among all stakeholders and championing the rights and achievements of women.

Best Practice 2

FORMATION OF VAZE QUEER CLUB

The establishment of Vaze Queer club took place on 6th December 2022. Its establishment is progressive step towards promoting gender sensitivity within the institution . The VQC aims to create a secure environment for queer individuals and also to spread awareness about queer-sensitive issues by organizing events like panel discussions, exhibitions and movie screening

The first event conducted by VQC was an exhibition called 'Know More, Know Queer' on 20th March 2023, in collaboration with the WDC as part of the International Women's Day celebrations. It was an interactive exhibition displaying flags, wherein the volunteers educated people about gender and sexual identities. The event received a positive response from the students as well as the faculty members. The VQC has since conducted many such successful events that helped foster inclusivity.

Additionally, the committee runs its official Instagram page known as @vaze.queer, featuring film reviews, infographics and news pieces which also promotes awareness and gender sensitivity.

I have conducted a study of various activities organized by KET's V.G.Vaze College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mulund (East) during the period 2022 To 2023 in order to provide equal opportunities to its women students.

I appreciate the activities conducted by the college.

I conclude that the college has taken various initiatives to protect and promote the interests of its women students.

However, i suggest the following recommendations :

- a. Workshops on Self Defense
- b. More Awareness regarding Prevention and Protection against sexual harassment.
- c. Workshops on skill based training.
- d. Vocational courses suitable to women
- e. Laws enacted for the betterment of women
- f. Awareness on problems less discussed such as menstruation
