Counselling Cell

All of us experience psychosocial issues in varying intensity some time or the other. At such times we experience that our problems do not allow us to move ahead in life or experience joy and happiness or actualize our potential. One cannot eliminate all the problems from our life. However, if we work on our state of mind and elevate it high, we can fly over the mountains of difficulties in our life journey. That is what counselling cell wishes to help students achieve - empowered and elevated state of mind.

Flying Bird: Counselling Cell of Vaze College is established with the following

Specific Objectives:

1. To offer counselling services to students facing day-to-day difficulties in studies and in their personal life.
2. To offer first aid to students facing major mental health issues and refer them to the counselling services outside the college.
3. To conduct seminars/workshops for students to develop positive attitude and life skills to meet life challenges.
4. To offer assistance to students with special needs

CHAPTER IV – ACTIVITY GROUPS & SPECIAL CELL

College Societies are meant for promoting co-curricular activities and skills. A Committee of Teachers, two of whom are its Joint Convenors, and two students, one from Degree College and the other from Junior College, manage each society. The teachers concerned nominate these students on the basis of merit. The Degree College student works as the Secretary while the Junior College student works as the Joint Secretary. These activity groups help students in personality development.

The Principal is the Ex-officio President of all College Societies and their decisions shall be final and binding on all matters. No person shall be invited to address meetings in the college without the prior permission of the Principal
